Devesh 7 Years

Seven-year-old Devesh has been falling sick again and again, but his parents had no idea what was wrong. Living in a small village, they kept going from one doctor to another, hoping for answers. Finally, at Ganga Ram Hospital, their worst fear came true, Devesh has a serious heart condition, and urgent surgery is the only way to save him. The cost of the surgery doctors said will be Rs. 4,50,000/-

His father, Manoj, works as a daily-wage labourer on someone else's land. His income is barely enough for two meals a day, and arranging such a huge amount for the surgery is impossible for him.

Today, Devesh's life depends on the kindness of compassionate people like You. His parents are humbly appealing to Diya India Foundation and its generous supporters to help save their little boy's life. Your support can give Devesh the chance to live, grow, and dream like any other child.

Please Help...

Your one act of Kindness can save his life.
