Karvi (2 Years)

Over the past 6 months there hasn't been a single day when my daughter Karvi (2 years) hasn't struggled to breathe. Now she is constantly sick and is become very irritable.

Few days back she had a high fever and we rushed her to the hospital said the mother. The doctors examined her and after an hour they told us that she is suffering from heart problem and she needs immediate surgery and cost of the surgery will be around 3,00,000/-

My husband is a Taxi Driver. He is getting a salary of Rs 7000/-p.m. His little income goes into running his household. Its impossible for us to arrange this amount.

I don't know where to get the money from. I need to save my child. Her disease is slowly and slowly overpowering her life. If she doesn't get the surgery urgently her heart will stop.

With your help my daughter's pain and suffering will go away and she will get a new life.
