MY ONLY DAUGHTER IS COUNTING HER DAYS PLEASE HELP

Tasmiya Noor 15 Years

I am a poor, helpless mother struggling to save my 15-year-old daughter.

I am writing with a heavy heart that my daughter requires immediate heart surgery.

Few days ago, I noticed that when my daughter is doing household work, she suddenly started experiencing breathing problems and heavy sweating.

We immediately took her to the hospital. After doing tests, the doctors told us that Tasmiya has been diagnosed with congenital heart disease (a hole in her heart ). She needs an emergency heart surgery to save her life. If the surgery is delayed, she may not survive.

The total cost of the surgery is Rs. 2,50,000.

My husband is a daily-wage laborer. He earns 6,000 per month. We are not in a position to support the complete cost of surgery, which is Rs. 2,50,000/-. Through my parents, I have been able to arrange Rs. 25,000/- only, can't arrange more.

I request, with my folded hands, Diya India and its supporters for help and to save my daughter Tasmiya's life.

Please come together and help my daughter.

Please Save Her Life.

Please accept my heartfelt gratitude in advance for your Blessing and Generous Support.

We will forever be indebted for your kindness.
